
Carta Nautica 1111.pdf !!TOP!!

Abu al-Hasan Ali ibn al-Farisi (c. 1000–1038 AD) calls his Indian Ocean sailing manual or chart qunbā al-Bihar. . "Una Carta Nautica Araba Inedita di Ibrahim al-Mursi 865 Egira = 1461. ". However, most scholars consider this name erroneous and prefer the name "Map of the World of Muhammad" to it. In all likelihood, it was found in some Arabic library at the end of the 10th century. This map shows only those places that the Arabs visited before the end of the 10th century. Muhammad's map of the World is considered the oldest map of the world known so far. It does not have a single known island. The map was discovered on the coast of the Indian Ocean, where it was found in 1772 by a French scientist.
